ALFONSO TORTORA, Tra evangelismo e fascismo. Gli anni giovanili di Salvatore Caponetto

This work is about some question of cultural and confessional formation of Salvatore Caponetto, a modern age historical, He lived between the first and the second nine hundred. In particular, the research has focused on some of the reasons that led Caponetto to an interest in the history of "Reform in Italy", which thanks to its long and careful research has been largely rebuilt, putting into question, even at the level of historiography, the judgment of those who up to then they had called into question even the existence.
