ENRICO MILETTO, «Aid and Relief». L'assistenza UNRRA in Italia, 1944-1947

The article contains an analysis of the UNRRA activities in Italy, with special attention to welfare assistance programs (food aid and public health to refugees, Displaced Persons, and childcare as well), with regards to the critical social situation in post-war Italy.

The study correlates primary press and archival sources with secondary literature and various documentation issued by the same Agency. The time period of the analysis spans from 1944, when UNRRA Italian Mission was constituted, and 1947, when its activities were terminated.
