

Nuova Rivista Storica

Anno CV, Maggio-Agosto 2021, Fascicolo II

Abstracts

FRANCESCA PUCCI DONATI, Due inedite pergamene pisane duecentesche rogate a Soldaia

This work presents the transcription of two unpublished scrolls written in Soldaia (today Solgat, Crimea) in September 1276. They are kept in the Archives of Pisa's Charterhouse. Both scrolls are of particular interest as they provide evidence of the presence of traders from Pisan in Soldaia and their trade with Acri, Constantinople and the coast of Asia Minor. They are also very rare examples of original acts drawn up in one of the Black Sea settlements.

Keywords:

Scrolls

Pisan merchants

Middle Ages

Soldaia